

CAMA BOARD REPRESENTATIVE FOR ALBERTA

Travis L. Peter, MPA, CLGM
Chief Administrative Officer
Sturgeon County, AB

Travis Peter is the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) for Sturgeon County, Alberta - a dynamic and growing rural/urban municipality in the Edmonton Metropolitan Region with over 350 personnel and a 2025 budget exceeding $160m annually. Travis has a deep love for community governance and outstanding public administration, and a keen interest to directly support and shape the future of CAMA's mission and member services.

Travis's multi-faceted leadership experience began as one of Canada's youngest municipal Chief Administrative Officers and continued with over twenty years of service in diverse senior positions in urban and rural municipalities of all sizes and types. In addition to municipal leadership, Travis has also served as founder and Executive Director of a provincial non-profit, an aide to a Cabinet Minister, an expert advisor to the Governments of Canada and Alberta on municipal innovation, the lead of several international delegations, and a trusted management consultant.

Committed to life-long learning, Travis holds a Masters Degree from the University of Victoria, an undergraduate degree from the University of Alberta, and advanced leadership training from Harvard University, the University of Dalhousie, Simon Fraser University, Grant MacEwan University, and others. Travis has also completed the Municipal Management and Leadership program and is professionally designated as a Certified Local Government Manager (CLGM).

For his efforts Travis has been fortunate to receive significant provincial, national and international recognition. This includes selection as one of Canada's top 10 municipal innovators, a "Top 40 Under 40" leader, a top academic medal winner, a university senate volunteer designate, coach of the year, mentor of the year, among numerous other organizational awards.

A proud Albertan and Canadian, Travis has contributed to the municipal sector as a Board Director with the Institute of Public Administration in Canada (IPAC) and is a long-time supporter of the Society of Local Government Managers (SLGM), Alberta Rural Municipal Administrators Association (ARMAA), Local Government Administration Association (LGAA), and more.

Travis, with his wife and two children, currently resides in Alberta's capital region.
